

Use this practical guide as a jumping-off point for thinking about how your curriculum choices can advance antiracism. By examining how your text or program treats these five topics, you and your colleagues may start noticing omissions and silences. After this review, you'll be better able to make choices to supplement the learning materials your students encounter. Each question is aligned to one or more of the CARE Principles:

Affirm the dignity and humanity of all people
[A]

Embrace historical truths
[B]

Develop a critical consciousness
[C]

Recognize race & confront racism
[D]

Create just systems
[E]
