

Foundations is a hybrid course that supports educators to apply antiracist principles to curriculum and instruction. It starts with the basics, provides clarity about what antiracist education means — and what it doesn't — and ends with each participant developing a personal growth plan. We've divided the pilot into three phases: Get Started, Learn, and Wrap Up.

Get Started

Kickoff Session: An Introduction to Learn 2 CARE Foundations (live, 1 hour)

Educators will...

- Define antiracist education.
- Explore racial identity.

Upon completion of this session, educators will have a firm and shared understanding of what antiracist education is along with a positive sense of self as they begin developing their critical consciousness.

Learn

COURSE 1:

Foundations of Antiracist Education

(self-paced, estimated at 90 minutes)

Educators will...

- Discover the CARE principles.
- Examine the CARE research briefs.
- Close-read the CARE Framework.

Upon completion of this course, educators will have the context, language, and knowledge to understand the benefits of antiracist education, collaborate with peers, and explain the importance of implementing antiracist change.

COURSE 2:

Widening your Lens: Antiracist Choices

(self-paced, estimated at 90 minutes)

Educators will...

- Understand the role of curriculum in antiracist education.
- Learn how to use the CARE Choice tool for identifying antiracist content.
- Analyze and compare a variety of content using an antiracist lens.
- Curate a library of antiracist content.
- Design an antiracist lesson.

Upon completion of this course, educators will create a curated antiracist library and lesson plan to be used with students. They will also have continued access to the CARE Choice tool for further content identification and analysis.

COURSE 3:

Applying Antiracist Education to Your Practice

(self-paced, estimated at 90 minutes)

Educators will:

- Unpack the CARE Framework.
- Identify areas for growth.
- Create an antiracist action plan for future development and implementation.

Upon completion of this course, educators will have a completed action plan ready for implementation as they continue the development of their antiracist skills, behaviors, and practices.

Wrap Up

Closing Session (live, 1 hour)

Educators will...

- Review overall course learning and reflect on the experience.
- Share antiracist action plans.
